From
THE ESTATE AGENT
SANDRINGHAM NORFOLK

2nd August 1949.

To
The Revd. R.H. Standley,
Boy Scout Camp.
Wolferton

I am commanded by His Majesty The King to inform you of his appreciation at seeing the Scouts at Wolferton Station yesterday. The King was much struck with the smartness of the Scouts who, as he left the station, lined up in perfect line and gave The King a very smart salute.

His Majesty desires that you will convey his appreciation of the smartness of the Scouts as he drove past.

H.M.King George VI

George R.I.
